

Tobacco has become a big problem, not just for adults but minors as well. Tobacco should be used in a better way, a traditional way. I want to help prevent smoking in the future and want this to affect everyone. And if not everyone, at least one person. I am telling this story now to let my peers know that commercial tobacco isn't our friend. These companies are targeting small children and they know it will make kids addicted.

Lori, age 17